

The Skirball Cultural Center presents Noah's Ark at the Skirball™: The Art of Imagination, bringing the messages and meaning of our landmark children's destination into your classrooms and homes!

Hailed by the New York Times as "Extraordinary... A celebration of play, inspiring fascination, reviving wonder," Noah's Ark is now open for virtual boarding through a suite of online programs and FREE educational resources. Explore this vibrant digital content and join us in Noah's Ark's timeless story of weathering storms, fostering community, and building a better world.

Online Resources

Noah's Ark Videos and Lesson Plans

Available now | FREE | Pre-K—Grade 5 students

In a set of six videos—now streaming on YouTube for all to enjoy—Noah's Ark educators retell age-old flood stories and guide students through mindfulness exercises.

Educators and homeschooling caregivers can use the accompanying lesson plans to spur creativity and dig into themes of hope, collaboration, and resilience. Learn more >

Online Programs

Virtual Field Trips

Check site for details | Per class: $50
(fee waivers available) | Pre-K—Grade 5 students

Book a program with Noah's Ark educators for up to an hour of guided play and exploration. Put your students at the center of engaging flood stories, invite them to craft their own narratives, and empower them as changemakers. Learn more >

Educator Workshops

Check site for details | FREE
Pre-K—Grade 12 educators

Take advantage of the Skirball's lively teacher professional development workshops! Focusing on storytelling and arts integration, discover creative ways to enrich your core content. Learn more >

“Kids that rarely [participate] on their own were up dancing and laughing. It was pure JOY!”

Noah's Ark at the Skirball: The Art of Imagination is made possible by generous support from the following donor: Marlene Louchheim

The Roslyn and Abner Goldstine School Programs are made possible by generous support from numerous additional donors. For the complete list, visit skirball.org/education.

skirball.org/education • education@skirball.org
© 2021 Skirball Cultural Center

Skirball
Cultural Center